

Perspectives of ICT in special education

Potential and possibilities of WEB 2.0 and social software

Programme

Thursday, 5th June 2008

13:00 – 14:00 Registration & light lunch

14:00 – 14:30 Welcome & Introduction

Ulrike Cress & Andreas Lingnau

14:30 – 16:00 Keynote

Tamar Heller: Research on psycho-social aspects and applications related to use of technology for persons with intellectual disabilities

– coffee break –

16:30 – 18:00 Session 1

- Peter Zentel: Accessibility of web-based information through multiple representations
- Martina Bientzle: Supporting face-to-face communication through ICT for pupils with cognitive disabilities
- Markus Erle: Accessible Web and Web 2.0 for people with learning disabilities – experiences and reflections according the future of accessible web

18:00 – 18:30 Plenum

20:00 Dinner (Restaurant “Mauganeschtle”)

http://www.mauganeschtle.de/html/restaurant\_uk.html

Friday, 6th June 2008

09:00 – 10:30 Keynote

Klaus Miesenberger: “Equality = e-Quality”

How Equal Access to the Information Society Depends on the Quality of Information and Communication Technology and Assistive Technologies

– coffee break –

11:00 – 12:30 Session 2

- Stefan Carmien: Content Personalization and Flexible Scaffolding in Support of Independence for Persons with Cognitive Disabilities
- Andreas Lingnau: LMMP – Learner supporting multi media platform for pupils with cognitive disabilities

– lunch break –

13:30 – 15:00 Plenum